Young Entrepreneurs of America

March 22, 2007

Dear Brian,

Have you ever heard that good things come in threes? Well, I have three BIG announcements that just couldn't wait until the next newsletter so here they are.

1) Three Big Competitions

The search is on to identify the best young entrepreneurs. YEA is currently running three major competitions geared towards students who really want to run their own business.

We are actively searching for student entrepreneurs who are interested in the following competitions:

- Young Entrepreneur of the Year
- Business Plan Competition
- Startup Summer

The first two are fairly self-explanatory but the third category is a NEW opportunity for students who want a mentor and startup cash to start their own business this summer. Complete details can be found online.

If you or anyone you know is a student who is interested in any of the above competitions, please let us know. Nominate your neighbor, your student, your sister, yourself!

2) New and Improved Website!

It has been a long time in the making but YEA is nearing completion of its new website. There is still significant construction going on and we are adding new pages and reformatting every day but it is still worth a visit and we would greatly appreciate your feedback on the new design and we would love any relevant content that you would like to add.

We are looking for a sample business plans that you would like to share, articles that you have written about entrepreneurs or entrepreneurial topics. If you run your own business, we would love to promote your business online so send us a photo and a brief background and we'll be in touch. Teachers, if you have worksheets, articles, or lesson plans that you would like to share, we would like to include those in the teacher's section as well. Please send any content that you think may be appropriate to brian@yeabiz.com.

3) Join Us Online

Finally, we would love to hear from you. Our blog can be found at www.blog.yeabiz.com. We post fresh and exciting content 2-3 times a week and would love it if you could stop by and sound off by adding your comments.

If you haven't already visited you are missing out on some great articles, fun topics, and a variety of student businesses. This morning's topic was posted to get you to share your favorite books. If you are a reader, please stop by and tell us which books you keep on your top shelf.
